

A Special Intergenerational Program: Sunday, May 15 Author Michael Tougias presents “The Finest Hours”

The Council on Aging is excited to invite the community to a slide presentation by Author Michael Tougias on his new book The Finest Hours: The True Story of the U.S. Coast Guard’s Most Daring Sea Rescue. The author will chronicle the Coast Guard’s daring rescue attempt off the coast of Cape Cod after a pair of oil tankers are destroyed during a blizzard in 1952. The book and now Disney movie, is an exciting true life story which is appropriate for students and adults of all ages.

The program will be held on Sunday, May 15 in Mudge Auditorium at the DS High School, beginning at 3:30 p.m. with a reception for the author and a book signing; the actual program begins at 4 and concludes between 5 and 5:30. This program is free and open to the public.

This program is supported in part by a grant from the Sherborn Cultural Council, a local agency which is supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.
